Shooting gallery designs by Ehlers Star Galleries Inc's talented artists and engineers are inspired by author Mark Twain. President Stephen P. Ehlers leads the interpretation of the Mark Twain stories into the production of the humorously action packed animated shooting galleries. Visit our webpage with over 20 colorful photographs where you also can imagine being in Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn's Circus, on the Riverboat, pretend to be Pirates, become Robin Hood on the log or enjoy your fantasies in 1860s wild west.

2006 ELECTRONICS CATALOG

The state-of-the-art electronics used within our galleries are designed for maximum endurance and durability, ease of use and maintenance, and low-cost.

This SMART STAR electronic system is PIC chip based, (programmable imbedded controlller). With a PIC chip computer on each weapon circuit board and each star target circuit board, it provides the owner/operator with a FUN game, free of maintenance and maximum flexibility, by selecting dip switch settings on the circuit boards.
